

Parental Release Waiver for Photography

I understand that AAW may photograph participants of the youth demonstrations for use on the AAW website and in publications, including the American Woodturner journal, and in publicity both before and after the symposium. AAW photography may also include video and DVD of youth participants, as well as of their turnings, which are displayed at the Symposium.

Photography by non-AAW individuals may also take place during the youth demonstration activities. The AAW bears no responsibility and cannot police photographic activities of non-AAW personnel.

I understand and agree that the AAW may photograph and videotape my child and their works as part of the AAW Symposium's promotional and historical activities, and that photography taking place during the youth demonstrations by others, is not the responsibility of the AAW.
